

ANTHROPOSOPHICAL SOCIETY IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

Annual General Meeting and Conference - 2018

9 - 11 March. Hillcrest, KZN

Isis-Sophia in relation to the Initiation in the Michaelic Mystery

"Woman, see, that is your Son... Son, see, that is your Mother"

We will look at how the source and stream of the archetypal feminine wisdom directs and connects with the path of the modern mysteries and how we get to know our own relationship to this connection as well as how to truly meet the other.

The Conference will explore this theme through contributions, conversations and artistic activities.

Programme

Friday, 9 March 2018 - Roseway Waldorf School, Alverstone

18h00 Supper

19h00 Introductory Presentation on the Theme

20h30 Concluding Picture

Saturday, 10 March 2018 - Roseway Waldorf School, Alverstone

9h00 Eurythmy

9h30 Guided Conversation

10h30 Tea

11h00 Artistic Work - 1

12h30 Lunch

13h30 AGM

15h30 Tea

16h00 Artistic Work - 2

Sunday, 11 March 2018 - Roseway Waldorf School, Alverstone

9h00 Artistic Work - 3

10h30 Tea

11h00 Closing Plenum

12h15 Conference Closes

(Please note that on Sunday there is an Act of Consecration of Man at The Christian Community - Movement for Religious Renewal, 2 Kangelani Way, Alverstone at 7h30. There is also lunch provided on Sunday for delegates who may need it before travelling home)

Suggested Reading:

The Archetypal Feminine (Manfred Schmidt-Brabant and Virginia Sease)

Paths of the Christian Mysteries (Virginia Sease and Manfred Schmidt-Brabant)

The Mystery of John the Baptist and John the Evangelist (Sergei O. Prokofieff)

Mary and Sophia (Michael Debus)